Discussion on Winter Wonderland 2019.

Presented by: Josh Nave and Jerod Hicks

City Manager Jared Cottle stated that this item is for information only tonight and come back again and look at last year's performance history.

Josh Nave stated that we are here just to brainstorm and we have met several times and secured a few sponsorships up to this point. Josh stated that we wanted to get the ball rolling since it's that time. We have two people helping this year with sponsorships and they are fantastic at that and that's why we brought them aboard. Josh continued to state that they done a Facebook survey about a month or two months ago to poll people on ideas and what they like and didn't like, Josh gave council some of the results on the survey.

Jerod Hicks asked City Manager Jared Cottle about the downtown project that are going on right night, Jared stated that we gave them a contract and schedule for their activities on certain streets on certain months, during the month of December around the parks will be off limits to construction at that time.

Josh shared a video with council and staff that we are sending out to our sponsors about the winter wonder land and what we are about. Josh stated that we will come back in a couple of weeks with more information.
